

Vladimir Lipavsky

Ost Legal, Managing Partner

Experience:

Vladimir Lipavsky advised and represented the clients in more than 50 major projects in the fields of power generation, oil and gas, mining, microelectronics, civil construction. Vladimir is the author of a number of articles and publications on construction and regularly speaks at the respective conferences and seminars.

Among recent Vladimir's representative projects are:

- Representing a company of INTERRAO UES Group in International Commercial Arbitration Court at Chamber of industry and commerce of Russia in a multimillion dispute against the EPC-contractor arising from delay of construction of power plant
- Representing Representing a company of INTERRAO UES Group in International Commercial Arbitration Court at Chamber of industry and commerce of Russia in a multimillion dispute against one of the largest Russian banks failing to make a payment under bank guarantee
- Representing M+W Germany GMBH (the international contractor with headquarters in Germany) as a local counsel in arbitration under SCC rules in multimillion EURO dispute arising out of termination of the EPC(M) contract for construction of a microelectronics fab in Russia

Specialization:

- Energy and natural resources
- Construction and building
- Dispute resolution

Languages:

Russian, English.

Education:

the Russian School of Private Law under the President of Russian Federation (Institute), Moscow. Far-Eastern State University. Juridical institute. International Law Faculty. Vladivostok, Russia; Master of Private Law.